STORYVILLE JAZZ AGENCY ANNOUNCES ROSTER, BRINGS NEW ORLEANS MUSICIANS TO THE BOOKING FOREFRONT

New Orleans welcomes a new music booking experience into the city.

Storyville Jazz Agency offers everything from 12-piece jazz bands to solo pianists, perfect for events and experiences both local and global. Founder and Booking Agent Nathan duToit, New Orleans resident and lover of jazz, says of the project: “I felt inclined to start the agency for a number of reasons but mainly to fulfill something that seemed to be missing in the New Orleans jazz community: a top-notch service dedicated to representing the best traditional jazz talent. People want a fine-tuned service that offers a memorable experience for their events - we provide just that. It’s very exciting and together, alongside musicians, we’ll be working incredibly hard to grow and share classic New Orleans jazz.”

duToit is thrilled to spread the talent of Storyville musicians across the country, even around the world. With musicians like Steve Pistorius, Wendell Brunious, Duke Heitger, and Mark Brooks, this company promises to expand with speed.

Storyville Jazz Agency is currently preparing special project announcements that pay tribute to the pioneers of jazz, as well as booking holiday events for private and corporate venues across the New Orleans region.
